

There are no special pesticide applications scheduled at this time (other than a bait or gel formulation) for any Algonac Community School building.